To know, to esteem, to love, and then to part;
Wakue up life's tale, to many a feeling heart.

E. F. Sherman.

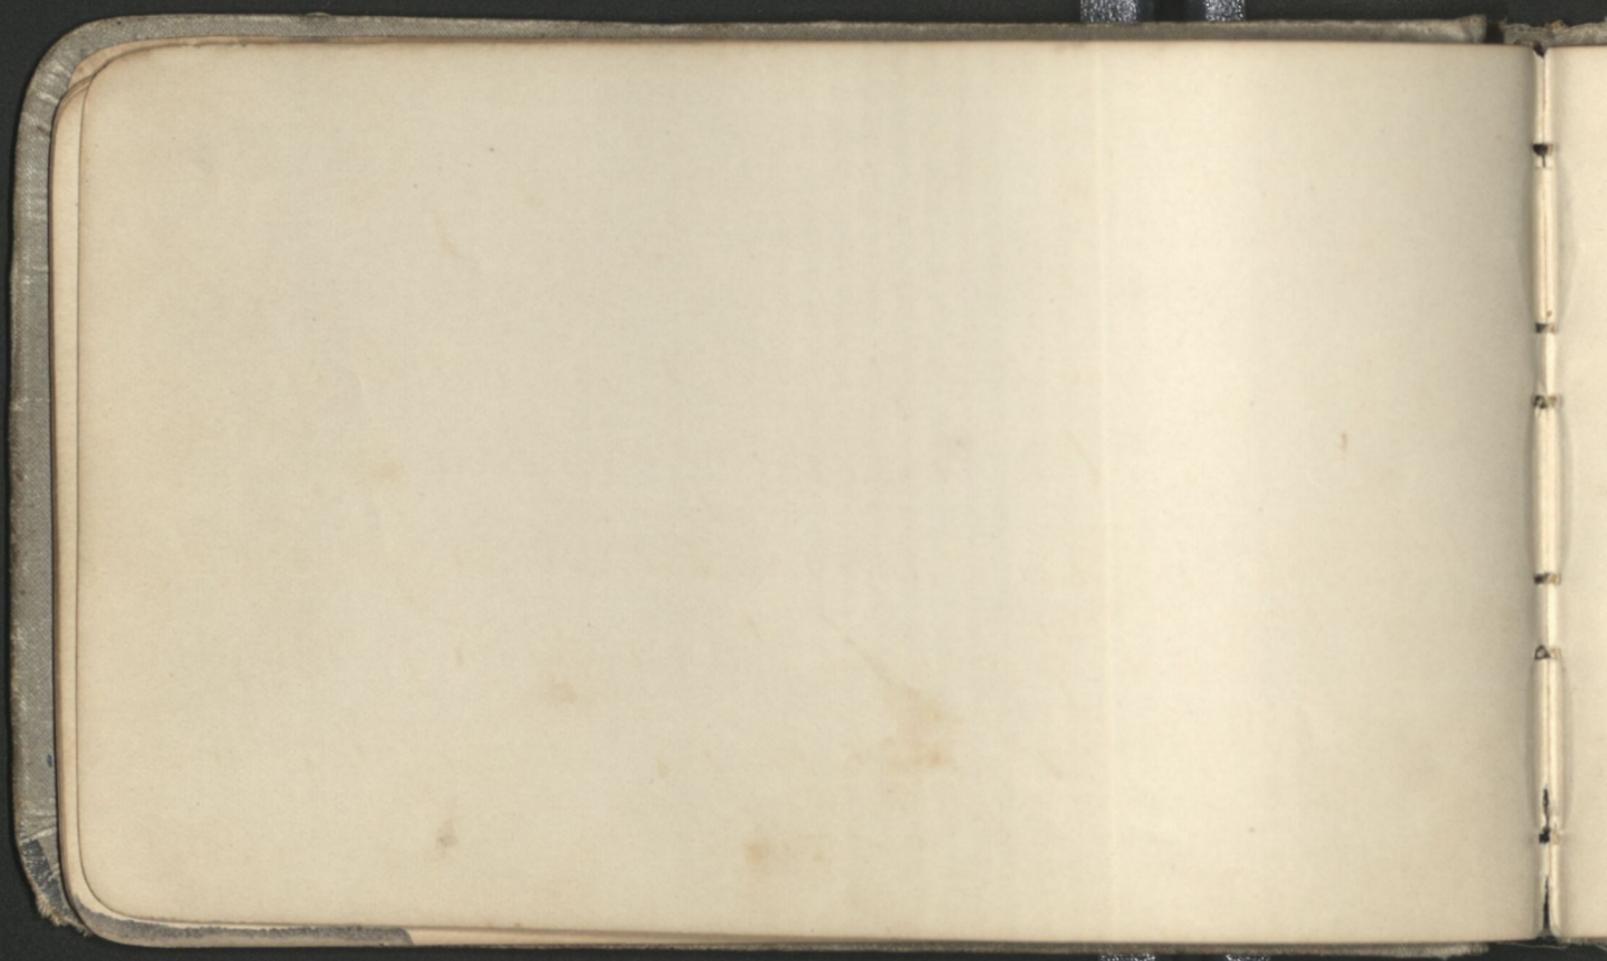

To Jennie.

Though many friends have signed their names
And some have left their mark
I see a place for me remain
To add my small remark.
My wish for thee is: joy through life.
And bliss supreme, when some one's wife.

Mrs N. H. Hunt.

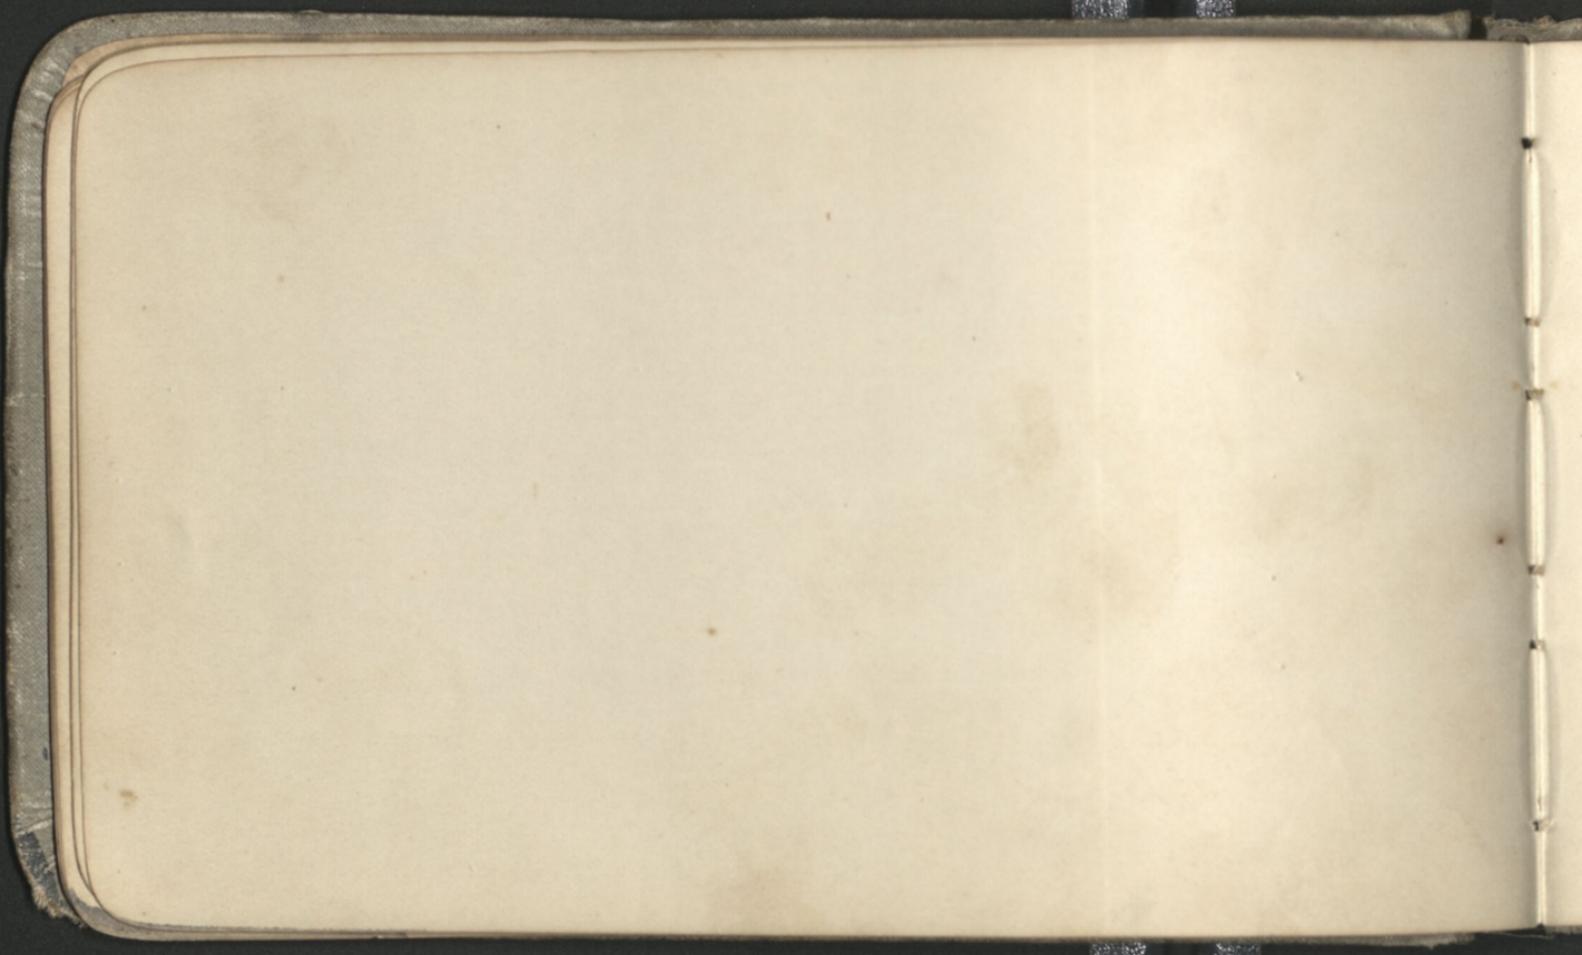

To Jennie

When the golden sun is setting
And your heart from care is free
When o'er a thousand things you're thinking
Will you sometimes think of me ?

Fall from the main-mast to the deck,
Half from whay-stack, and break of one more
Will take earth from heaven above:
But not you ever fall in love.

Mass,

To Jennie

When years, and months have glided by
And on this page you cast your eye
Remember 'twas a friend sincere
That left this kind remembrance here
With best wishes for your future cheer.

If I travel the wide world o'er,
In countries hot or cool;
I'll never forget the days,
When we went to the Coffin-School.
Your sailor friend, and former class-mate,

He look before, and after and grieve for what is not
Our sincerest laughter
Hills some pain is fraught
Our sweetest songs are those that tell of saddest thought.

{ Don't forget me when you're happy.
Keep for me one little spot.
In the depths of thy affections
Plant one sweet Forget-me-not.
